

Trip Report Arlington October 8, 2016

Reported by Donna Smith

We had good weather for our birding trip to Buckeye and Arlington, sunny and clear. The birds were showing up for us, lots of little burrowing owls and ibis in the flooded fields.

Birders: Kathy Weeler, Jean Eddins, Cindy Rucker, Jim Consolloy, Sarah Burbank, Dan Jacob and Donna Smith.

Birds: Black-bellied Whistling Duck, Mallard, Gambel's Quail, Doubled-crested Cormorant, Great Blue Heron, Great Egret, Snowy Egret, Cattle Egret, Black-crowned Night Heron, White-faced Ibis, Black Vulture, Turkey Vulture, Osprey, Northern Harrier, Red-tailed Hawk, American Kestrel, Peregrine Falcon, American Coot, Killdeer, Black-necked Stilt, Spotted Sandpiper, Greater Yellowlegs, Lesser Yellowlegs, Long-billed Curlew, Least Sandpiper, Rock Pigeon, Eurasian Collared Dove, Mourning Dove, Greater Roadrunner, Burrowing Owl, Belted Kingfisher, Black Phoebe, Say's Phoebe, Western Kingbird, Loggerhead Shrike, Common Raven, Tree Swallow, Verdin, Northern Mockingbird, Curve-billed Thrasher, European Starling, Phainopepla, Yellow-rumped Warbler, Abert's Towhee, White-crowned Sparrow, Red-winged Blackbird, Brewer's Blackbird, Great-tailed Grackle, House finch and House Sparrow.